

FLORIDA ATTORNEYS DAVID G. MULLER AND YELINE GOIN NAMED CO-DIRECTORS OF COMMUNITY ASSOCIATION LEADERSHIP LOBBY

New CALL Executive Team Gives Greater Breadth and Depth to Advocacy Work on Behalf of More Than 4,000 Condos and HOAs Statewide

TAMPA /TALLAHASSEE, Florida (FRIDAY, April 13, 2007) – The Community Association Leadership Lobby (CALL), a statewide advocacy group working to advance the common interests of condominiums, homeowner and other community associations throughout Florida, today announced that community association lawyers David G. Muller and Yeline Goin have been named co-executive directors of the organization.

Mr. Muller and Ms. Goin will immediately assume responsibility for all day-to-day operations of CALL, which advocates on behalf of more than 4,000 member communities statewide and is the leading organization working to enhance the quality of life and protect property values for Florida's community association residents. Both are members of the law firm Becker & Poliakoff's Community Association law practice.

Mr. Muller is based in Becker & Poliakoff's Sarasota office and represents community associations located in Sarasota, Manatee, Charlotte, Lee, Polk, Desoto, Brevard and Highlands counties. Mr. Muller is also the Assistant Editor of the Community Update, Becker & Poliakoff's newsletter on community association law, and an active member of the West Florida Chapter of the Community Association Institute. Prior to becoming an attorney, Mr. Muller worked as a staff member for United States Congressman Dave Weldon, M.D. (FL 15th District, Melbourne), where he served as a liaison between local government, business officials and federal agencies.

Based in Tallahassee, Ms. Goin represents condominiums and homeowner associations in efforts to comply with various aspects of the Florida Condominium Act and Florida Homeowners Association Act. Prior to joining Becker & Poliakoff, Ms. Goin worked for more than five years within the Florida Department of Business and Professional Regulation, Division of Land Sales, Condominiums and Mobile Homes, where she developed in-depth knowledge of rulemaking, enforcement and dispute resolution. As a Senior Attorney with the Division, she arbitrated condominium disputes, represented the Division in Circuit Court and provided legal opinions on behalf of the Bureau of Condominiums. Ms. Goin is also bilingual in English and Spanish.

Established in 2003 by the law firm Becker & Poliakoff, CALL monitors and responds to legislation emerging from Tallahassee that can significantly impact condominiums, homeowners' associations, mobile home communities and cooperatives throughout the state. Becker & Poliakoff, a diversified commercial law firm with more than one hundred attorneys in fifteen offices throughout Florida, has the leading community association law practice statewide.

"We are very excited to welcome David Muller and Yeline Goin as the new co-directors of CALL," said Gary Poliakoff, firm founder and President of Becker & Poliakoff, P.A. "Their combined leadership as co-directors of the organization and their experience with community association law and the legislative process will extend CALL's success in effectively advocating on behalf of community associations statewide."

"I'm honored to be given the opportunity as CALL co-director to help drive the expansion of CALL's successful grassroots lobbying efforts to include more condo, homeowner and other community association involvement from different regions around the state," said Mr. Muller.

"I'm very pleased with the opportunity to provide a permanent presence for CALL in Tallahassee, where so many decisions are made that impact on the quality of life of community association residents across the state," said Ms. Goin. "David Muller and I look forward to taking CALL into a new phase of advocacy on behalf of the millions of community association property owners in Florida."

Becker & Poliakoff has been a pioneer in the development of Community Association law in Florida, with many of the leading cases in the field bearing the firm's name. Becker & Poliakoff's Community Association attorneys, recognized as individual leaders in the field through published works, legislative activities and industry group leadership positions, work together as a team to provide community association clients the benefit of more than 100 years of collective experience in the field of Community Association law and practice.

More information about the activities of the Community Association Leadership Lobby (CALL) and its insurance survey of property owners in community associations statewide can be found at the organization's website online at: www.callbp.com.

###

About the Community Association Leadership Lobby (CALL)

The Community Association Leadership Lobby is the leading organization working to enhance the quality of life and protect property values for Florida's community association residents. CALL advocates on behalf of more than 4,000 member communities, including condominiums, homeowners' associations, mobile home communities and cooperatives throughout the state. More information on the Community Association Leadership Lobby can be found at www.callbp.com.

Media Contacts:

Alan Penchansky / Christi Rice
The Pen Group Communications
(305) 529-1944
alan@thepengroup.com